

WERRIBEE STEEL

55 years steel strong!

Proud finalist of Wyndham Business Awards 2023

Our history, our family.....our people, our team.

With a rich history dating back to 1967, Werribee Steel has evolved into a renowned industry leader, driven by our unwavering commitment to quality, innovation and customer satisfaction.

At Werribee Steel, we take immense pride in our heritage as a local family business. Founded by Aldo and Adriana Cannizzaro and now led by their son, Robert Cannizzaro, we have nurtured a legacy of trust, reliability and superior craftsmanship. Our strong family values form the foundation of our business, ensuring a personalised and customer-centric approach to every project we undertake.

Welcome to Werribee Steel, where craftsmanship meets innovation, and your steel fabrication needs are met with unmatched expertise and dedication. Join us on this exciting journey as we bring your visions to life and create enduring structures that stand the test of time.

Community support since 1967

From local sporting organisations to raising funds for causes that can make a difference. Werribee Steel are actively building a strong and vibrant community, and couldn't be prouder to be part of the Western Suburbs Region.
